RADIO KOREA'S ENGLISH PROGRAM DETAIL

- Cultural Potpourri : A more refined weekly cultural program will appeal to your ears with its new title "Cultural Potpourri" to be aired every Monday. It brings you closer to on-the-spot activities of Korean culture and arts so that you can vividly picture what's going on in the Korean cultural scene.
- KBS Salon : A weekly talk show program in which we invite interesting foreign visitors of the week to talk about a variety of subjects including their views of Korea.
- Youth in Action : This newly designed program will acquaint you with activities and viewpoints of the vigorous Korean youth. By visualizing their hopes and dreams you can come to understand the youth of a different culture, who will become leaders of the future.
- Koreans All! : By featuring stories of Koreans in various walks of life and their contributions to society and way of life, this weekly feature presentation aims to give you true pictures of the Korean spirit.
- Seoul Calling : A daily magazine show with music, interesting features, and interviews on such various subjects as people, places, life style, industry, sports, culture and art of Korea. You can get up-to-date information on everything in Korea just by tuning in to this variety magazine show.
- Shortwave Feedback: This is Radio Korea's Sunday listeners-contact point, where producers and listeners join forces. Your participation is what we need every week. Please tell us what you think and help us keep things moving by giving us your views. Han Hee-Joo and Amanda Marshall, as a team, always welcome your participation.
- Bridge of Friendship: The team of Choi Kyunghee and Barbara Nolan cordially invites you to join them on the show, reaching out to you across the airwaves of the world. During their time together, they read letters from listeners and answer their questions while making informative and cheerful comments of their own. A purely personal touch is evident with a bit of entertaining music.
